

Le Château

Start your life together here

Situated high on a hillside in rural South Salem, New York, stands the former home of the Rector of Manhattan's St. George's Episcopal Church, built for him by his Warden, John Pierpont Morgan, the American financier, banker, and philanthropist who dominated corporate finance during the period known as "The Gilded Age." Le Chateau sits on thirty-two wooded acres overlooking the Hudson Valley offering breathtaking views and magnificent sunsets. The exquisite garden settings can host an outdoor ceremony, cocktail hour or photographic session.

"Le Chateau is blissfully removed from the busy back-and-forthing of mere mortals."

- New York Times

Inside the mansion, romance fills the chestnut and cherry paneled rooms bedecked with hand-hewn woodwork, grand staircases and cozy stone fireplaces. Four distinct rooms can host any style event. Whether its a traditional sit-down dinner with dancing, a cocktail reception or a small celebration, your guests will experience the warmth and intimacy of elegant dining.

Treat guests to inspired French cuisine created by our award-winning chefs. Creations of hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, appetizers, and dinner entrees are guaranteed to delight every palate. Top off the day with an impressive made-to-order wedding cake and dessert selection.

From the moment you commence planning to the departure of your last guest, every detail will receive personal attention and dedication to perfection. When the big day arrives, our attentive staff is at your side, ensuring the event unfolds flawlessly. Enjoy as the guests of honor, and leave the details to us. It's that simple.
