In the Bronx, just at the edge of Westchester, you will find Pelham Bay and Split Rock Golf Courses – with perfectly manicured grounds and elegantly appointed interiors, it is the ideal location for stylish weddings, receptions, corporate functions, golf tournaments, holiday parties, fundraisers and special events. Easily accessible to both New York City and Westchester, the historic site was originally opened in 1901; and with the newly completed $10 million renovations, the site has been transformed into a preeminent event location for the Tri-State area.

Perfect for hosting groups of up to 200, its gorgeous natural setting provides the perfect backdrop for pictures, while the sophisticated interior boasts a distinct art deco flair harkening back to an era of luxury and glamour. The Great Room is ideal for cocktail receptions and opens up to the patio giving guests a spectacular view of the courses. The Pavilion is a unique space featuring vaulted ceilings and its windows wrap around the entire perimeter, treating guests to an unobstructed view of the lush beauty surrounding the clubhouse. The fully-appointed private bridal suite is also available for the bridal party. The world-class staff can create an event that is customized to suit your every need. By hosting just one function at a time, they are able to ensure that each detail is thoughtfully handled. The professional catering and events team will help plan every detail from a custom-designed menu by the Executive Chef to inspired decorating options and everything in between.
